

PARTNERS : WHAT YOU HELPED US DO LAST YEAR

Looking back on last year, we have to acknowledge that many times, we felt overwhelmed by the length of the crisis and the complexities of the region. At the same time, we witnessed again an inspiring outpouring of God's love and felt deeply humbled by the prayers and support we received, and by the faithfulness of our partners everywhere in the world...

EDUCATION : WELCOMING DISPLACED CHILDREN IN HIS NAME

© Helen Manson for World Renew

The Syrian crisis has dragged hundreds of thousands of children away from their homes and communities, forcing them to live in places where they face harsh living conditions, are deprived of education opportunities, and do not feel welcomed. In this challenging context, our partner churches are answering their calling to welcome vulnerable children and their families and care for them, giving them a chance at a more hopeful future.

LIVELIHOODS : JUST GRADUATED!

This quarter, 43 women and men graduated from five vocational trainings we support in Lebanon. Whether they learned sewing, hair-dressing, or electricity installation and repair, they received starting kits and most of them are already working from home or in their local communities with the new skills they gained.
