

WELCOMED WITH OPEN ARMS

"This country can no longer handle us refugees. After 10 years, I feel like an unwelcome guest. But in the church's learning center, we are welcomed with open arms. My children have been enrolled for a few months only, but I am already impressed. They seem very happy and their behavior improved. The teachers tell me that my daughter is very smart, so I want to keep on educating her."

THE CHURCH RESTORED MY DIGNITY

"The visits from the church team give me strength, joy, and hope in this difficult time. They treat us as if we were family. They are sincere, gentle in listening, happy to help and give. They don't discriminate between families. I feel comfortable to tell them everything that worries me, and it comforts me to know they are by our side. They helped restore my dignity among my peers in society."

WINTER WARMTH

Winter hit Lebanon and Syria hard in January and February, bringing heavy rains, hailstorms, and snow at higher altitudes. As many vulnerable families in both countries lack indoor heating, we are thankful for our local partners who have reached almost 10,000 families with winter items this season and helped rehabilitate 100 homes damaged in the Beirut explosion, among other much-needed assistance.
