

REFLECTING ON THE PAST TWO YEARS

We asked some of our church partners to reflect on the Beirut explosion and the months that followed. Despite the trauma and the challenges, they were able to see God at work and are thankful for the many opportunities He opened for them to be messengers of hope. Watch the video and read below about two families who found renewed hope in the midst of many trials and sorrows.

WE TRUST GOD HAS BETTER PLANS FOR US

"We believe that even after all this sorrow and hardships, there will be happiness and relief. I feel like I have become very close to Jesus. I am now 100% sure that He is with us and that He listens to our prayers. All this time we used to ask ourselves why we haven't gotten the chance to travel somewhere else. But now we trust that God has better plans for us. Our lives are His, and He should do what He sees fit for them."

THE LORD WILL PROVIDE

"My faith and the support from the church changed my life. We have been through a lot of difficult times, but thank God for the church and the people there that stood by us. I believe that God is with us because He has been speaking to me. I tell my children and my husband that despite all the trials, God will not leave us behind. Our role is to pray, and the Lord will provide. Nothing is impossible for Him."
